BARRIERS

Provide a description of any barriers that prevented parents from participating during the previous school year. Describe the steps the school will take for the coming school year to overcome these barriers (with attention to parents/families with disabilities, limited English speakers, students living in unstable housing situations, and parents/families of migrant children) [ESEA Section 1116].

Barriers Areas	Plan of Action (Steps)
Homelessness	Administration, as well as our Student Services staff, works closely with district personnel to make sure that students are homeless, receive the proper support in getting their needs met in a timely manner. Meetings may occur to provide information and support from various agencies that provide services to students.
Unfamiliar with School System	Administration, as well as our Student Services staff, works closely with families that are unfamiliar with the school system or that need extra support. Individual meetings may occur to provide information and support from various agencies that provide services to students and their families. "U R NOT ALONE" parent breakfasts are held each quarter. These meetings are specifically designed to inform parents of services that are available to them. Community partners are invited to these meetings so that parents may take advantage of the offerings provided.

PARENT AND FAMILY FEEDBACK

Each year, our school encourages parents and families to work in collaboration with the school to develop, review, and revise the Title I School-level Parent and Family Engagement Plan (PFEP). The PFEP is a tool that is used to determine how well our school is partnering with you and promoting your involvement in your child's education throughout the school. Your feedback is important in helping us in continually improving the PFEP and the parent and family engagement program at our school. We have provided contact information below so that you can learn about the different ways you can be a part of this home school connection. Thank you!

PARENT AND FAMILY ENGAGEMENT
Each year, our school encourages parents and families to learn to collaborate with the school to enhance, monitor, and review the Title I School-Level Parent and Family Engagement Plan (PFEP). The PFEP is a plan that is used to determine how our school is partnering with you and address your involvement in your child's education throughout the school. Your feedback and participation in making it all happen are the cornerstone of our engagement plan. At our school, we have provided contact information resources that you can use to get involved in the plan. If you can't find the information you need, please contact us. Thank you!
